

This year I believe I attended all NEC meetings by Zoom. One of them proved very patchy, I understand the bandwidth the venue provided was not far off dial up!

I continue to support National events organised by National. Providing back up, over sight, some transportation and resource to these.

I am happy to re-stand, regrettably I suspect that NEC meetings will again be attended by zoom however.

Regards

Adrian Barnard.